VAGTC Frequently Asked Questions from PARENTS of Gifted & High Ability Children Resource

VAGTC are pleased to launch this Resource for parents.

Every day, parents of gifted and high ability children are faced with new challenges. Navigating these challenges raises many questions, questions with wide, varied and often complex answers. This Frequently Asked Questions resource is the outcome of these ideas, challenges and thinking. It is also a response to the many questions that parents have asked at VAGTC parent seminars in recent years.

The resource is written in simple English with key terms explained. Interrelated questions are cross referenced and links to further resources are provided throughout.
